Charge: Free

Enjoy FREE hot dogs (and veggie dogs) on Saturday, June 28 and Sunday, June 29th from 4-9 pm at The Bottleneck Lounge, located on the backside of Capitol Hill between John and 23rd. The Bottleneck will be serving free dogs with all the trimmings throughout the weekend in order to sustain hungry gays and non-gays alike during this time of intense partying, trying gas conservation and rising dairy prices. No gimmicks, just good free fire-roasted weenies.

On Friday, June 27 at 10 PM our very special guest Rev. Fr. Prof. Christopher Sowers will kick off the gay festivities by offering the second annual Traditional Hot Dog Blessing. Father Christopher is an ordained priest in the Liberal Catholic Apostolic Church, Father-Custodian of Order of Ave Maria, a resident of Portland, a handsome gay man with an obvious sense of humor and a lover of hot dogs. In accordance with tradition, drinking, frivolity and general merriment will occur both before and after the blessing.
